

Above are two other cipher codes sent to the San Francisco Examiner and Chronicle by an unknown party with letters saying that he was responsible for killings in the Vallejo area. They are similar to one mailed the same time to the News-Chronicle. So far none have been decoded.

CIPHERS

From PAGE ONE

brought a strong reaction from many Vallejo residents, judging from their telephone calls to others swore that they were

Some reported fright from the mystery writer's strange demands.

Others said that the ciphers were oriental in nature, and mystery message.

ancient Egyptian hieroglyphics.

Many said they rushed to their dictionaries and other books in an effor to solve the unbroken.

But so far the code remains who have the originals, could

Law enforcement authorities, who have the originals, could shed no light on the situation, but they, too, have been trying to decipher the messages.

FUNERALS

MORGAN, Annabell, 11 a.m. Saturday, Second Baptist Church. Interment, Sunrise Memorial Cemetery.

REYNOLDS, Mary Ellen Cowles, 10:30 a.m. Saturday Wiggins Funeral Home. Interment Sunrise Memorial Cemetery.

MARTINI, Rose, Requiem Mass 10 a.m. Monday St. John's Church, Napa. Entombment Tulocay Mausoleum, Napa. Rosary 8 p.m. Sunday Claffey and Rota Funeral Chapel, Napa.

WEIGHT, Winfield Scott, 10:30 a.m. Saturday Richard Pierce Funeral Service, Napa. Interment Sunrise Memorial Cemetery, Vallejo.

Mrs. Dingman Rites Monday

Mrs. Vera Julia Dingman, 6 of 1708 Alabama, died Thursda after a brief illness.

She was a native of Missou and a resident of Vallejo f the past 29 years.

She was a member of th Twin City Steppers of Fairfiel the Star Promenaders of Valle and World War I Vetera Auxilliary 223.

Survivors include her hu band, Lewis L. Dingman; a so Ray Dingman of Fairfield; daughter, Mrs. Helen Johnst of Napa; two sisters, Mr Jessie Briggs of Joliet, Ill. a Mrs. Allie Buerge of Jasp Mo., and six grandchildren.

A funeral service will be he