

Las Vegas Checks Man As 'Zodiac'

A possible suspect in the "Zodiac" assault and murders is being checked out in Las Vegas, it was learned last night.

Police there arrested a Los Angeles man on a firearms charge and promptly notified the San Francisco police department.

Clark County sheriff's detective said Wednesday that Gary Ronald Schilling, 27, was arrested on the Las Vegas strip Tuesday night for possession of an unregistered firearm.

Fingerprints and handwriting samples have been forwarded to San Francisco police for investigation in the Zodiac murders.

Detectives said they probably wouldn't have an reply before today at the earliest.

No hint was given as to why police thought this man to be connected with the weird Zodiac affair.
