

3 Youths Jailed At Hogan Game

Three youths were arrested while leaving a basketball game at Hogan High School Friday night.

A reserve officer reported they blocked the way of spectators and appeared to be under the influence of alcohol or narcotics.

After a scuffle, during which a reserve officer was hit in the groin, the trio was arrested. They are James William Sturges, 19, of 1207 Warren Ave.; Louis Joseph Myers, 19, of 468 La Jolla St., and a 17-year-old who was turned over to juvenile authorities. All were booked for investigation of being under the influence of alcohol or narcotics, police reported.
