county's most beloved citizens who died about two years ago."

Wyman Riley, publisher of the News-Gazette expressed regret at Johnson's decision. "Carl was an outstanding managing editor," he said, "and we are sorry to see him leave. He has been a tremendous help and his advice always will be welcome.

"In Dick Gaikowski we feel we have selected a very able managing editor. He was chosen from among many candidates for the post. He is young and aggressive and intensely interested in producing the best newspaper possible for Martinez. We think he will give our readers a top-notch newspaper."
