

★ Topless Bar Arrests

(Continued From Page 1)

committed in his establishment. Dancers jailed are Patricia Ann Holly, 28, on two counts of perverted sexual acts, Cynthia Burke Carvalho, 27, for conspiracy, and Dawn Joyce Spencer, 32, on both conspiracy and commission of the sex acts. Also booked on conspiracy of lewd acts was doorman Preston Elvin Mashburn, 28.

All have posted $10,000 bail and are slated to appear in the municipal court for formal arraignment Nov. 5 at 9 a.m.

Spinelli is also free on $20,000 bail from Solano County Jail on a warrant from Portland, Ore., charging him with taking part in the armed robbery of a Portland nightclub in June. Spinelli is due to appear in the municipal court Nov. 13 for further extradition matters in the case, pending a hearing with the state attorney general Thursday in Sacramento.

Spinelli is also on bail from Napa County Jail where he was jailed in September on robbery charges stemming from a Kinney Shoe Store hold-up in Sacramento in May in which from $300 to $400 was taken by a gunman.

Meanwhile, Lance Byron Beighley, Spinelli's alleged partner in the Oregon hold-up, has been released to Oregon authorities following extradition authorization from Gov. Reagan last month.

Guilty Plea

LIVINGSTON, Mont. (UPI)—Stanley Dean Baker, 22, Sheridan, Wyo., entered a plea of guilty to first degree murder in district court today in the dismemberment slaying of a young welfare worker. He was sentenced to life in prison.

Baker earlier had admitted he ate the heart of his victim, James Michael Schlosser, 22, of Great Falls, Mont., who had worked in the community of Roundup as a welfare worker.

Schlosser's headless and heartless torso was found July 10 in the Yellowstone River near Gardiner.