ENGINEERS FOUND DEAD

NAPA — Ernest W. Brown, 37, of 312 Kingston Ave., was found dead early Sunday in the bathroom of his home by his wife, Barbara.

Cause of death will be determined in an autopsy, according to Coroner Elliott Lader.

A native of Virginia, Mr. Brown was a civil engineer. He resided in California since 1953 and recently was associated with Volano Engineering Co.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by five sons, Ernest, Rodney, Larry, Donald and Bruce Myers, all of Napa; four daughters, Brenda, Bonita, Katherine and Rebecca Myers, all of Napa; four brothers, Frank, of Colquhar, Va.; William and John, both of Richmond, Va.; and his mother, Mrs. Elsie Brown, of Colquhar.

A funeral service will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday in Richard Piers, Napa, retired Episcopal minister, of Calistoga, of Colquhar.

Interment will be in Tulocay Cemetery.

D. DUNKLEBERGER
NAPA—Col. Jerry H. Dunkleberger, 41, USAF (ret.), of 2000 Combsville Rd., died Saturday in a local hospital after a long illness.

A native of Gregory, S. D., Col. Dunkleberger also was retired Union Oil Co. executive.

During his Air Force career he served as commanding officer in Laos, New Guinea, and as deputy commander of the 4th AF in San Bernardino from 1944 to 1945.

He later was deputy commander of the Air Force Base at Hamilton Field, Col. Dunkleberger was a member of the Lions Club of Rodeo and the Napa Valley Officers Association.

Surviving are his wife, Mildred, a daughter, Susan, of Napa; a son, Alan, of Modesto; a brother, George, of Loveland, Colo.; and a sister, Mrs. Pearl Fahnenstiel, of Burke, S. D.

A funeral service will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday in Napa Valley Memorial Gardens, Napa.

L. CHENEVERT
A Requiem Mass for Lionel L. Chenevert Sr., 71, of 2044 Parkway, Sacramento, who died Saturday, was held today in St. Basil's Church with the Rev. Thomas Ryan, assistant pastor, as the celebrant.

Interment was in St. Vincent's Cemetery. Mr. Chenevert was a highway accident survivor. He was a member of the St. Basil's Church, of Napa.
