

Paul Stine Is Contest Winner

HUGHSON — Paul Stine, Hughson High School junior and the son of Mrs. Audra Stine, was the winner in the Lion's Club speech contest before the meeting of the club Thursday evening.

Also speaking on the subject "Youth Problems Tomorrow" were Rosalie Lewis and Marlene LeVake. A fourth contestant, Martin Thompson, was ill and unable to appear. Judges were attorneys R. O. James and Howard Jones and Phil Ashmun. Milton Alvine and Ken Galt were timers and Elmer Owen and Ora Sheldon the tellers. The students were coached by David Steinberg of the school faculty.

Stine is now eligible to take part in the zone contest to be held in Riverbank March 14.

It was reported at the meeting that the sale of the Club community calendars will soon be underway.
