

Renaissance Pleasure Faire

The third annual Renaissance Pleasure Faire and Ha'penny Market — a 400-year journey back into the countryside mood and humor of Elizabethan England — begins at 11 a.m. tomorrow in Marin county.

The fair, which will be held from 11 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. every weekend this month, is located in a secluded woodland setting at 1000 North San Pedro road, off the Marin Civic Center exit from Highway 101.

More than 100 craftsmen will hawk their wares — traditional materials and crafts of the period — and old English beer, cider and wine will be available, plus a tumult of jesters, jugglers, pipers, wizards, mummers and minstrels.

Tomorrow is Guildmasters

Day, in which proclamations and appointments of the fair's master craftsmen will be announced.

Visitors are encouraged to make their own costumes and come in the dress of the Renaissance.

Sunday Band Concerts

Brass band concerts will be given from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday, September 7 and 14 at Fleishhacker Playfield, Great highway at Sloat boulevard.

The concerts are presented through the City's Recreation and Parks Department with the cooperation of the musicians' local.
