

Jamestown Will Graduate Ten

McClatchy Newspapers Service

JAMESTOWN — The graduation exercises at Jamestown Elementary School will be conducted at 8:15 PM Friday when a class of 10 eighth graders receives diplomas.

The graduates will be addressed by Rev. Edgar Nelson, pastor of Sonora Methodist Church.

The valedictory address will be given by Mary Jasper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Jasper of Jamestown.

The program follows:

Processional march; invocation, Rev. Nelson; Pledge Of Allegiance, led by Ernestina Meza and Peter Oehr; The Star Spangled Banner, sung by the audience; salutatory address: Louise Nau; baritone solo, Mary Jasper; song, You're A Grand Old Flag, graduating class; address to the graduates, Rev. Nelson; presentation of American Legion school award by Carlos D. Arellano; presentation of class, Orville Nichols, principal; presentation of diplomas, Jay Gibbs, member of the board of trustees; benediction, Rev. Nelson; recessional.

The graduates include Glen-non Bass, Timothy Bode, Jr., Melvin Dale Cooper, Richard Raymond Gurley, Jr., Louella Arline Hart, Mary Elizabeth Jasper, Peter John Lehr, Ernestina Meza, Louise Marie Nau and Paul L. Stine.