

Topless Beer Bar

Crackdown Here

Ralph Antone Spinelli, Jr., operator of Crazy Horse Saloon who is already charged on two separate counts of armed robbery, became further embroiled with the law last Friday night when he was arrested for eight counts of conspiracy to commit lewd and lascivious acts at his topless beer bar in September.

According to Solano Sheriff's deputies, Fairfield-Suisun Municipal Court warrants were served Spinelli, three dancing girls, and another man at the Crazy Horse Friday following a five to six week undercover investigation by agents from the California Alcoholic Beverage (ABC) Control Board in Oakland.

According to ABC investigations supervisor John Kubeth, Oakland, acts of oral copulation have been committed at the Crazy Horse under observation by his agents on Sept. 4, 11, and 19.

Deputies said Spinelli is charged with eight counts of conspiring to have these acts.
