

'Very Brave Man'

Editor of The Bee — Sir: After reading the article "Modestan Offers To Be Killer's Victim" on the front page of The Bee Oct. 23, I would just like to say Joe Stine is a very brave man. He has put his life in jeopardy to save others. He has said he will not be carrying any weapon and will further be riding a bicycle to and from his job. There is a very good chance the Zodiac killer will take Stine up on his offer and how will he protect himself?

Every night I read the paper and watch young men on the news demonstrating against the war in Vietnam. I cannot help but feel they could not possibly think it is immoral as many of them do not know the meaning of the word as they smoke their pot and advocate free love. They are just not man enough to fight, no matter what the cause. Stine has proved he is a man and a very brave one at that. There are not enough around.

I attended Hughson High School with Joe Stine's brother, Paul Stine, one of the Zodiac's victims, and feel we have lost a very fine person. I hope we can show Joe Stine and his mother we care. I am sending a small donation to help start a fund to buy Stine an automobile for the cold wet days ahead and I hope many more will join in. Just imagine what $1 from each reader could do.

I am sending my small check to Muriel's Richfield Service Center, 706 Sutter Ave., Modesto.

Modesto.

AROUSED.
