

Two Bodies Found, Stabbed Many Times

SAN JOSE (AP) — The bodies of two teen-age girls, each stabbed at least 50 times, were found in a wooded area late Sunday. Police said today they were mystified by the apparently senseless killings.

The bodies of Deborah Gaye Furlong, 14, and Kathy Snoozy, 15, were discovered in an oak grove atop a hill in a fashionable San Jose area.

Police said the girls were fully clothed and apparently sexually unmolested.

The girls were found during a search mounted after they failed to return from a picnic. It was not known who made the discovery, but reports from police indicated it was either an equestrian or a motorcyclist. Police began a house-to-house canvas of the neighborhood today in hopes of finding someone who had seen the two girls during the two to four hours between the time they left their homes to the time they were believed to have been killed.

Deborah's father, Glen Allan Furlong, 38, a senior associate engineer at IBM, said the girls left their homes about noon and he began to look for them when they failed to return home by 6 p.m.

"The hill is about the only place they had to go," said Furlong, who arrived at the scene shortly after the bodies were discovered.

Barton Collins, chief of detectives, said the girls, both students at Oakgrove High School, had apparently been killed between 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. and that their bodies may have been dumped in the oak grove.

Witnesses reported seeing blood splattered about atop the hill. A one-gallon plastic jug filled with fruit drink and a rubber sandle belonging to one of the girls were discovered near their bodies. No weapon was found.

Their bikes, both locked and chained to a fence, were found at the bottom of the 200 foot hill.

The victims' bodies were identified by Furlong and Kathy's parents, Wilfred Snoozy, a carpet layer, and his wife, Elna.

"They had been stabbed in the front and back at least 50 times," said Collins, who added — without elaboration — that the murder weapon appeared to have been a switchblade knife.

SEALE RAKES ALIOTO, COPS

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Black Panther Party Chairman Bobby Seale today accused Mayor Joseph L. Alioto and the San Francisco Police Department of denying the Panthers the right to sell their newspapers on city streets.

Seale told a news conference at the Hall of Justice that eight Panthers had been arrested during the past three months and their newspapers confiscated. He called the arrests "just another form of harassment by the pig Alioto fascist cops."

The eight arrested were charged, according to Seale, with loitering or obstructing traffic. Once the party posts

Clipped By:
tim_selvidge8113
Apr 4, 2024