son's home; they found similar bags and groceries spilled outside.

Police said Miss Hearst and possibly Benenson were transferred to the white station wagon on Tanglewood.

Tanglewood Road is a commonly used shortcut to the hills leading to Contra Costa County.

The apartment was a shambles. Blood splattered the paneling near the kitchen. A blood-soaked towel was on the living room floor.

Berkeley Police Lt. Henry Sanders noted that both Weed and the neighbor were bloodied in the attack. He said there was no indication that Miss Hearst had been injured.

Weed and his neighbor, also 30, were taken to Hebrew Hospital for treatment of multiple head injuries and later were transferred to Cooley Hospital. They are reported in satisfactory condition. The neighbor added that his name not be used.

Miss Hearst is a sophomore art history major at UC.

She has light brown shoulder-length hair, brown eyes, is 5 feet 3 inches tall, weighs 110 pounds.

Benenson, 31, of 1340 Josephine St., Berkeley, is 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighs 155 pounds. He has a well-trimmed beard.

The white woman who led the raid was in her 20s, about 5 feet 4, 110 to 120 pounds. She had short dark hair and was wearing a loose jacket. She was "slightly dressed," Weed said.

One of the men was in his late 20s or early 30s. He was about 5 feet 10 about 155 pounds and wore his hair in a "medium Afro" style.

The other man had a short Afro, was about 20 years old, about 5 feet tall. He wore eyeglasses.

Both men were clean shaven. Weed said each wore boots, but there was no other description of their clothing.

The old station wagon was possibly a Chevrolet; circa 1969. Witnesses said it may have had a California license, streaks on its sides and rounded tail fins.

Weed, badly bruised and shaken, was able to recount the invasion.

He said that about 9:30 p.m. either the door bell rang or there was a knock at the apartment door.

He said the young woman claimed she had had an accident and needed help.

"That is when two black men — armed with rifles, maybe shotguns — burst in and shot me," he said. "They had me face down on the floor in the hallway. They kept kicking me and the door was jamming me to keep my face down."

Weed struck once with a full wine bottle.

Weed said the men demanded money taking him and the $20. He told them to leave alone, "just leave us alone."

"We heard a scream," she said. "Then three shots. We looked outside. Two men were carrying a girl. She was struggling."

She was half-dressed, naked from the waist up. She screamed, "Please let me go!" She seemed to be blindfolded.

Donald Yamagishi, 22, who lives in the same apartment building, said he heard the noise of the break-in and, of a sudden we heard a noise that sounded like firecrackers were being set off. "There were two bursts but it wasn't exactly like firecrackers. I heard glass shattering."

Police said that at least five shots were fired. Other witnesses said there were many more.

His hands, opened the glass doors and got out of the apartment. He said he heard a yard声 seeking help, climbed over several fences and finally reached Parker Street.

The apartment probably was broken into two days before the raid.

Weed said that about the same hour Saturday night a black man and a white woman came into a white woman's home and asked a number of "vague" questions about whether the apartment was rented. They said they were "looking around" and "looking like commando-like."

Weed said he remembered hearing the woman saying, "I'm going to see if them, they've seen us." The woman apparently was to get to the door to greet Weed and his neighbor.

Just after the woman's remark, he heard a metal click, as if a gun was being cocked. He said at that instant he felt he "got nothing" to do so "I just went to the door to see what was going on."

His hands, opened the glass doors and got out of the apartment. He said he heard a yard声 seeking help, climbed over several fences and finally reached Parker Street.

Her fiance is the son of Mrs. Bernard S. Pepper of Santa Rosa and Donald E. Weed of Palo Alto. Weed is a Princeton graduate.

The suspected members of the SLA — Jerry De Leon, 27, and Richard Little, 24 — were captured after a shootout with police in Concord on Aug. 11. De Leon was charged with murder—the cyanide bullet ambush of Dr. Foster.

Police still hunting 36-year-old Nancy Ling Perry, wanted for arson in the torching of the Concord Post Office, were at the SLA headquarters.

In letters to Bay Area media, one person identified herself as Mrs. Perry said she had been a member of the SLA intelligence unit and that unit was responsible for the kidnapping.

Steven Weed's Berkeley apartment, scene of last night's kidnapping of Patricia Hearst, was set systematically on fire in the early hours of Sunday morning.

Police said it was dark and difficult to see the pair but they did not believe the kidnappers had been seen.

He described the man as "very slim" and "dark-skinned." He appeared to be a black man, he was not positive. He said he had a light complexion.

It is possible the two who broke into the apartment last night, he did not believe them to be the kidnappers.

Other police sources do not believe the woman in the apartment raid was Mrs. Perry.

One source told The Examiner that the name did not appear on the lists.

Benenson of 1340 Josephine, Berkeley, was entangled through the theft of his 1969 Corvette from the apartment of Steven Weed. Miss Hearst's fiance, where Miss Hearst was kidnapped.

A bag of groceries from the Berkeley Co-op was scattered along the sidewalk at Benenson's apartment, including a carton of melting ice cream.

Inside the apartment, Berkeley police found trousers, glasses and other items of Benenson's clothing. His wallet and car keys were missing.

Two other bags of groceries were in Benenson's car when it was found abandoned on Tanglewood Road not far from the Claremont Hotel.

The kidnappers put Miss Hearst in the trunk of the Benenson car and sped away.

Benenson, released unharmed, was in seclusion after being questioned by authorities today.

Anti-smoking move chokes

Associated Press

SACRAMENTO — Clouds of smoke from cigars, pipes and cigarettes wafted across the chamber as the California Assembly rejected yesterday a move against smoke-peddling立法.

The resolution by Assemblyman John Briggs, a non-smoking Republican from Fullerton, would have banned smoking in Assembly hearing rooms, but not in legislative offices or in the chamber.

"You are fooling around with your own heart and your own lungs and your own good health," Briggs said.

Republican Assemblyman John L. E. (Bud) Collier of South Pasadena said the Legislature got rid of spittoons years ago and prohibiting puffing in committee would be a logical next step.

"Would you want someone sitting around here spitting on you? Certain not," Collier said, squatting through a cloud of cigar smoke sent up by his teammate, Democrat Walter Powers of Sacramento.

"I started to smoke a pipe when I was 10 years old and that was very sophisticated thing to do, and I think I don't look forward to giving up," said a pipe-puffing Assemblyman John Knox, D-Richmond.

Briggs' resolution was snuffed out on a 30-32 vote. He said he would try later with a different antismoking move — perhaps a resolution segregating smokers from nonsmokers.

Pair 'scouted'

West apartment before kidnap

Steven Weed's Berkeley apartment, scene of last night's kidnapping of Patricia Hearst, apparently was systematically set on fire in the early hours of Sunday morning by a white woman and a man who appeared to be black.

Weed said it was dark and difficult to see the pair but they did not believe the kidnappers had been seen.

He described the woman as in her 20s, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches tall, with long brown hair. "An unattractive street type," he said.

He described the man as "very slim" and "dark-skinned." He appeared to be a black man, he was not positive. He said he had a light complexion.
