

Chester C. Klingel III

BURLEY — Chester Clark Klingel III, 23, of Hughson, Calif., died Thursday of injuries received in a vehicular accident east of Burley.

Born July 11, 1962, in Marin County, Calif., he attended school in the San Francisco Bay area. He had been a sergeant in the Marine Corps and was a member of the Ready Reserve. He recently returned from Alaska, where he was a commercial fisherman.

He had come to Rupert to attend the wedding of a friend and was staying with the Richard Thompson family in Burley.

Surviving are: his father, Chester Clark Jr. of Hughson; his mother, Violet Jordan of Los Angeles; and two sisters, Sandra Klingel and Kim Wentz, a stepbrother, Burt Sarkis, and two stepsisters, Jeannette and JoAnne, all of California.

Graveside rites with military honors will be held in Presidio National Cemetery in San Francisco later this week.

Friends may call at the Payne Mortuary in Burley Monday to sign the guest register.
