

16 S.B. County residents pass fall state bar exam

Sixteen San Bernardino County residents were among 3,550 people who passed the fall bar examination, the State Bar Association has announced.

In addition to passing the general bar examination, each applicant must satisfy other requirements before they can be admitted to practice law, including passing an examination of legal ethics, the state bar announced. About 92 per cent of the individuals listed have now satisfied all requirements, the bar said.

The admittees will be sworn as attorneys at ceremonies in mid-December in Sacramento, San Diego, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Fresno, and San Bernardino.

The San Bernardino ceremonies will be held Dec. 19 at 10:30 a.m. in the State Building at 303 W. Third Street.

The persons are:

Laurel Anne Benson, Crestline; Leslie O. Bradbury, Claremont; Terry E. Caldwell, Victorville; James Gordon Davis, Ontario; Gloria Gebbie, San Bernardino; Benjamin Ygnacio Gonzales, San Bernardino;

Bryan Calvin Hartnell, Redlands; Gerald M. Hinkley, San Bernardino; Christopher Joseph Miller, Ontario; George Stephen Roberts, Claremont; Stanley Glenn Rothbart, Ontario; Wilfrid W. H. Soelter, Upland; Alan Errol Spears, San Bernardino; Alan Dean Tuck Jr., Upland; Charles J. Uhalley, Cucamonga, and Mary Elizabeth Vincent, San Bernardino.

The names and addresses are those released by the state Bar, which advised that it is sometimes provided with only a student's law school or other temporary address.

Clipped By:
bemistape
Jan 18, 2026